The First Battle

OSCAR W. MILLER has received the exclusive agency for this and adjoining counties, for the sale of Bryan's new book, entitled "The First Battle." It is written in Mr. Bryan's best style—clear, concise and logical. His inspiring language, full of keen satire and brilliant rhetoric will, charm, interest and instruct, not only those who were his most devoted followers but also his most ardent opponents. The book contains about 600 pages printed from large, clear type, with 32 full page illustrations; a magnificent colored presentation plate and an autograph preface; handsomely bound in cloth, half-morocco or full morocco, at $1.75, $2.25 and $2.75 each. Mail orders will receive prompt attention. Address, OSCAR W. MILLER, Hutchison, Ky.

Public Sale Of 435 Acres Of Bourbon Land!

STOCK, CROP & FARM IMPLEMENTS

I will sell at public auction on the premises, four miles East of Paris, on the North Middletown pike, beginning at 10 o'clock, a. m., on the following land, stock, etc.: My farm containing about 435 acres of good, well improved land, will be offered as a whole and then in two tracts. Tract No. 1 will contain about 250 acres (subject to survey), fronting on the North Middletown pike, with a five-room cottage on a beautiful site, a model stock barn and corn crib—in fact every outbuilding that would add to comfort, all new and well built; young orchard, peaches, apples, pears and cherries, just bearing; two acres of strawberries, the famous Haviland variety; two tenant houses and a splendid tobacco barn, will house 18 acres. This farm is well watered by Stoner, numerous springs and a large fish pond well stocked. This is one of the most desirable farms in the county; well located, daily mail at the door, and is in good condition. Will grow hemp or tobacco.

TUESDAY, MARCH 2, 1897,

Tract No. 2 will contain about 180 acres of fine land with a five-room brick house and a large tobacco barn, will house 20 acres; all in bluegrass and rye; watered by Stoner and the finest spring in the county. The quality of this land is A. No. 1. A good passway will be secured to this tract not encumbering tract No. 1.

At same time will sell the following stock, etc.: 1 brown gelding, 5 years old, good roadster [and work horse]; 4 thoroughbred mares, pedigrees furnished on day of sale; 1 two-year-old thoroughbred colt, ready to go in training; 5 work mules, 1 pair extra; 30 Shropshire-down ewes, all registered or eligible; 10 Shropshire-down ram lambs, extra; 1 imported Shropshire-down ram, a prize winner; 6 extra Jersey cows and heifers soon to be fresh; 150 barrels corn in crib; 400 cotton grain sacks, good as new; mowder; binder; hay stacker and rakes; wagon; harrows; plows; cultivators; dump cart; harness; plow gear; seed stripper, and other things too numerous to mention.

Terms made known on day of sale.

GOSSIPY PARAGRAPHS.

Theatrical And Otherwise—Remarks In The Foyer.

TWENTIETH CENTURY VAUDEVILLES.

Among the leading features of the excellent program to be given Tuesday night at the opera house by the Twentieth Century Vaudevilles will be a one-act comedy entitled "Calling Out The Militia," a clever skit written by a leading member of the Vaudevilles. The Governor of Kentucky will figure in the production.

The Wexford Bros., wonderful acrobats, and the Brothers Browner in a duel of the wits, will have amusing acts. La Petite Georgia will be heard in female impersonations, and "The Hobo Brummels" will give a delightful musical specialty.

Mr. W. H. Davis will render a part of the beautiful tragedy "A Madman," in which he assumes the role of a marquis. During the progress of the piece, which is a prison scene, the marquis, in describing his wrongs becomes a raving maniac, and dies from the rupturing of a blood vessel.

The program will contain many other entertaining acts.

THE JOLLY PATHFINDERS.

Rentfrow's Jolly Pathfinders continue to attract good audiences every night at the opera house and they have given pleasing performances which were more meritorious than many higher priced companies which have visited Paris. Last night the comedy-drama "The Devil's Gold Mine" was presented. To-night the bill will be "Scraps" and to-morrow night "St. Valentine's Day" will be played. A pleasing bill will be given at the matinee to-morrow.

To-morrow night a set of furniture will be given to some lucky person in the audience.

The music by the splendid orchestra is an attractive feature of the performances.

"Albert Ross," the novelist is suffering from nervous prostration and is in a sanitarium. Ross in real life is a Boston and Cambridge journalist, and his name is Linn Boyd Porter. He is worth $50,000, and nearly all of this has been received as royalties on the sale of his books, "Thou Shalt Not," "His Foster Sister," and several others of the same warm hue.

"The Argonaut" says that a "new woman" was an object of much interest in Lexington Wednesday. She was dressed in a brown suit of men's clothing, wore a long overcoat, a standing collar, derby hat and patent leather shoes. She and her male companion were strangers in Lexington. They left on a C. S. train.

Lizzie Evans, who has been seen here several times in "Foggy Ferry," "The Buckeye," and "In Old Kentucky," has gone into vaudeville. She is now at Weber and Field's Broadway Music Hall, in New York.

"In Old Kentucky" is back at the Academy of Music in New York. Laura Burt is the leading lady.

"Lend Me Five Shillings" will be played to-night by Maysville amateurs.

"Secret Service" will reach its 150th performance Monday.

Comfort.

IT CANNOT BE.

The dying lips of a dear friend
At parting spoke to me,
Saying: "Whosoever your path may trend
There over I shall be."

"Go walk where over Egypt's sand
The burning simooms blow,
Or in Alaska's sunless land,
Your wake my wing shall know."

"When winter's nights are long and dark,
I'll lead you by the hand,
And when the waves beat on your bark
Will beacon you to land."

He died. I watched his spirit go
Across death's darkening sea.
He came not back, and now I know
Of things that cannot be.

PLACE NAMES.

Some Odd and Curious Names of Places in Massachusetts.

In the Middlesex fells some good old colonial names are preserved, like Jinglejerry hill and Shillyshally brook. Spot pond was named by Governor Winthrop, who discovered it in the winter, because of the many rocks that showed through the ice and spotted the surface. Powderhorn hill in Chelsea is said to have been bought from the Indians for a hornful of powder.

The fact of misfortune to divers unknown persons—whether trivial or great does not appear—finds a record in Bad Luck brook and swamp in Rehoboth, Bad Luck mountain in Granville and Bad Luck pond in Douglas. There may be some association between Burncoat brook and pond in Leicester and Spencer and Burnshirt river, likewise in Worcester county.

Drinkwater river is a felicitous name for a stream of good water. It is in Hanover, and possibly there may have been a family of that name in the neighborhood. Strong Water brook in Tewksbury has quite different associations. Sought For pond, in Westford, suggests a long and baffled quest for the spot through the wilderness in the olden days. One of the least euphonious of names is Skug river in Essex and Middlesex counties. It is worthy a place among such English names as Wormwood Scrubs, a park in London.

The legend about the names of the group of islands on the south coast presents an instance of how fancied resemblances give rise to stories. It is related that these islands once belonged to a man with four daughters. To Nancy, the oldest, the father gave the first choice, and the fact that "Nan took it" is recorded in the name of Nantucket, the island she selected. Nantucket, of course, is in reality an Indian name. Martha's Vineyard and the Elizabeth islands went to Martha and Elizabeth, respectively, while for the fourth daughter, whose name has been lost to memory, there was nothing left but the most remote and undesirable of the group, which was called No Man's Land, because its owner was a woman. The Elizabeth islands, in fact, were named for Queen Elizabeth by Bartholomew Gosnold, their discoverer, whose name has been given to the town that comprises them.—Boston Transcript.

Mailing Candy Abroad.

A young man who apparently knows a girl in London came into the office the other day and asked whether candy could be sent abroad through the mails. So he was taken over to the postoffice and the state of affairs was laid before an official, who instigated an investigation. After a long time he returned and reported as follows:

"I am very glad," said he, "that you asked that question. Its answer shows a curious state of affairs. In this country you can send candy up to 4 pounds as merchandise for 1 cent for each ounce. If you want to send candy abroad you only have to pay 1 cent for every 2 ounces, but you can only send 12 ounces in each package. If it weighs more than 12 ounces you have to pay letter rates, or 10 cents an ounce for the whole thing.

"That is to say, you can send 10 ounces to London for 5 cents, but it would cost you 10 cents to send it to Brooklyn. So if you are thinking of sending a pound it will cost you $1.60. The stamp department is right over there."

"Thank you very much," said the young man. "I just happen to remember that the doctor has forbidden the girl to eat candy."—New York Mail and Express.

Foiled.

Senator Wilson of Washington and his brother, Harry Wilson, look very much alike. One day in Spokane, where the two brothers live, Senator Wilson, who had just returned from his legislative duties, was stopped on the street by a man who had known him for years.

"Harry," said the man, "when will your brother John be here?"

"In a day or two," said John without a smile.

"Tell him I want to see him on an important matter."

"Certainly," said John.

"And you will not forget it?"

"I'll try not," promised John, and thus another office seeker was foiled.—Washington Post.

Mrs. Hearst's Motive.

Mrs. Phoebe Hearst of California has given $200,000 to found a mining school in connection with the state university at Berkeley as a memorial to her husband. She gives largely to the free kindergartens, supports several college settlements and contributed $1,000 to the recent campaign for the woman suffrage amendment. She has also given $300,000 to establish a fine gymnasium for girls at the state university. She said to Miss Anthony, "I am doing all this to make girls fit to vote."

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE — OF —

Land!

By virtue of an order of the Bourbon County Court, made and entered Feb. 17, 1897, as Administrator with the will annexed of John Shea, I will expose at public sale to the highest bidder at Millersburg, Ky.,

Saturday, March 6, 1897,

the following described property:

A tract of 15 acres of land lying in the County of Bourbon, state of Kentucky, on the waters of Hinkston Creek, and bounded on the S. and W. by lands of Alex McClintock (now Caldwell's); on the N. by the land of Jas. Wallace (now Jas. Thorne); and on the E. by the Maysville and Lexington R. R., with a right of passway 15 feet wide from said land to the Millersburg & Ruddells Mills turnpike, and is the same land conveyed to John Shay by Jos. Wallace and wife by deed recorded in Bourbon County Clerk's office, in deed book 58, page 201.

Said sale will be made for cash, or upon a credit of 6 and 12 months for equal parts of the purchase money, for which purchaser will be required to execute bonds, with good and approved security, payable to undersigned Administrator with will annexed, and bearing interest at 6 per cent. per annum from day of sale until paid.

Sale to be made at 2 o'clock, p. m.

DENIS DUNDON,

Adm'r with will annexed of John Shea.

Mardi Gras, New Orleans, La., March 2d and 3d, 1897.

The rate of one fare for the round trip will be made via the Queen & Crescent Route February 28th to March 1st, to New Orleans. It is the only line running solid vestibuled trains to New Orleans, and is eighty six miles shorter.

A trip over the Queen & Crescent to the quaint and intensely interesting city by the Gulf made to include a visit during the Mardi Gras season is delightful from start to finish. For further information call on or address, Chas. W. Zell, D. P. A., W. C. Rineason, Gen'l Pass'r Agt., Cincinnati, O.
